

Where Are We???

If you are coming from the border gate side just when you entering into town and you see boxer city on your left right side. Just after ending the building you will see there is a road on your right Known as the new Hospital Road. Take that road for a few miters and you will see the next image. If you came through town just before you see boxer city you will take a left turn and follow the same steps.

On your first right you will see an entrance with a gate with a coca cola sign drive in and you will see the parking.

You will have reached your destination

We Are Here